(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply)

DEAR MADAM/SIR.

Through the USPTO abandonment letter mailed on 03/17/2003 I have learned that an office action was mailed to me to which no reply was submitted.

Searching the file and archive did not result in finding such an office action in my possession.

I have to conclude therefore that the office action never arrived to me.

1. Please revive the application.
2. Please re-mail to me the office action since at this point, not having the office action, I can not send a reply.*
